Kindergarten

Outcomes:
ENe-4A Demonstrates developing skills and strategies to read, view and comprehend short, predictable texts on familiar topics in different media and technologies.
ENe-8B Demonstrates emerging skills and knowledge of texts to read and view, and shows developing awareness of purpose, audience and subject matter.

Syllabus Content:
- Use comprehension strategies to understand and discuss texts listened to, viewed or read independently.
- Predict meaning using elements of texts prior to reading.
- Identify literal meanings presented in texts, e.g. character, setting and events.
- Make connections between text and own life.
- Interpret meaning by responding to an inferential question.
- Retell a familiar story in sequence and identify main idea.
- Use context to predict meaning in written texts to supplement decoding.
- Begin to use self-correction strategies.
- Recognise there are different kinds of imaginative and informative texts for enjoyment and finding information.
- Understand that readers/viewers may have varied individual responses to a text.
- Recognise parts of print and digital text.
- Explore different contribution of words and images to meaning in stories and informative texts (ACELA 1786).
- Interpret pictures with labels, environmental print logos and other visual images.

- Activate relevant background knowledge by showing pictures, photographs or video clips
- Simple predicting activities
- Talks about the meanings found in still and moving images e.g. illustrations, videos
- Uses the illustrations on the cover of the book to make predictions about what the story is going to be about when reading |              |
| Creating Sensory Images | - Visualisation only (single words e.g. nouns, verbs, simple sentences)
- Begin to form sensory images when being read to
- Identify words that indicate when and where actions take place
- Using simple picture books with familiar themes and topics |              |
| Key Vocabulary        | - Can identify the key word in a single sentence
- Knows that when, where, how words trigger a sensory image e.g. Yesterday my dog bit the postman on the leg.
- Knows and uses a range of everyday words, colours, names and familiar objects after reading
- Knows and uses some subject specific words in areas of interest e.g. animals |              |
| Asking Questions      | - Knowing that authors write books
- Introduce thinking about words and asks others about their meaning e.g. “What is terrified?” “What does it mean?”
- Listens to a story read with interest and makes appropriate comments
- Asks questions to find out meanings of unfamiliar words and when |              |
| Making Connections     | - Begin to analyse and evaluate stories read and viewed by providing and justifying a personal opinion (text to self)
- Identifies unfamiliar words and attempts to use experience and context to work out meanings (text to self) |              |
| Synthesising          | - Uses drawing to construct meaning
- Talks about information found in factual texts
- Expects text to make sense and recall the sense of a text
- Uses pictures to construct a simple oral retell
- Gives a sequenced retell when prompted |              |
| Inference             | - Can infer from simple visual images e.g. a crying child, a scared cat etc. then ask what is happening?
- Interprets meaning by answering a simple inferential question correctly. E.g. Tears rolled down her cheeks. (Ask: What is the girl doing?) |              |
| Determining Importance| - Respond to the overall meaning in texts by talking about the central theme
- Builds understandings of a topic by identifying key facts in texts in print and on screen |              |
Year 1

- EN1-8B Recognises there are different kinds of texts when reading and viewing and shows an awareness of purpose, audience and subject matter.

Syllabus Content:
- Recognise grammatical patterns to enhance comprehension.
- Identify the parts of a simple sentence that represent ‘What’s happening?’, ‘Who or what is involved?’ and surrounding circumstances.
- Self-correct when meaning is interrupted in simple texts, e.g. pausing, repeating words and phrases, rereading and reading on.
- Use comprehension strategies to build literal and inferred meaning and begin to analyse texts by drawing on growing knowledge of context, language and visual features and print and multimodal text structures (ACELY1660, ACELY1670).
- Use background knowledge of a topic to make inferences about ideas in a text.
- Predict author intent, series of events and possible endings in imaginative, informative and persuasive texts.
- Sequence a summary of events and identify key facts or key arguments in imaginative, informative and persuasive texts.
- Identify visual representations of characters’ actions, reactions, speech and thought processes in narratives, and consider how these images add to or contradict or multiply the meaning of accompanying words (ACELA1469).
- Compare opinions about characters, events and settings in and between texts (ACELT1589).
- Distinguish between fact and opinion in persuasive texts.
- Identify how imaginative, informative and persuasive texts can vary in purpose, structure and topic.
- Understand that texts draw on readers’ or viewers’ knowledge of texts to make meaning and enhance enjoyment, e.g. comparing fairytales.
- Discuss possible author intent and intended audience of a range of texts.
- Understand concepts about print and screen, including how different types of texts are organised using page numbering, tables of content, headings and titles, navigation buttons, bars and links (ACELA1450).
- Understand how text structure contributes to meaning of texts.
- Know some features of text organisation including page and screen layouts, alphabetical order, and different types of diagrams, for example timelines (ACELA1466).
- Understand simple explanations in diagrammatic form, including flowcharts, hierarchies, life cycles.

- Responds to and analyses by discussing a point of view presented in the text.
- Analyses and evaluates how visual images support print to create meaning in texts.
- Interprets and responds to texts by skimming and scanning to confirm predictions and answer questions posed by self and others when reading.

Cluster 8 (End of yr2)
- Refers to prior knowledge and experiences to build understanding of a text.
- Justifies predictions about sections of a text.
- Builds understanding of a text by using knowledge of text organisation and features, e.g. referring to headings and sub-headings to locate information.
- Draws conclusions by using clues in a text.
- Identifies more than one perspective or point of view when represented in texts.
- Articulates the main idea and provides a synthesised retell that captures key events in texts.
- Creates mental images to capture ideas in texts.

Cluster 9 (End of yr3)
- Builds understanding during reading by discussing possible consequences of actions and events.
- Interprets texts by recognising and discussing the difference between literal and inferred meaning in relation to information, characteristics, events.
- Builds understanding about the meaning of a text by actively seeking information from different parts of a text.
- Shows an awareness through discussion that texts can present different perspectives.
- Analyses the ways ideas and information are presented by making comparisons between texts.
- Identifies and interprets main ideas and important information in a text to provide an accurate retell of a text.
- Analyses a text by discussing visual, aural and written techniques used in the text.
- Builds understanding about the meaning of a text by identifying and discussing text organisation and features, e.g. cohesive links.

| Determining Importance | - Responds to the overall meaning in texts by talking about the central theme
- Builds understandings of a topic by identifying key facts in texts in print and on screen
- Predicts and lists a range of print and non-print resources for answering focus questions, e.g. Internet, literary and factual texts, photographs, charts, people |              |
| Text Conventions | - Interprets basic maps, charts, diagrams, graphs, photographs, other still and moving graphics
- Skims a text for overall message using headings, sub-headings, layout, and graphics
- Finds information for specific purposes in factual texts
- Relates information in text to accompanying graphics
- Uses the table of contents, menu, index, spare numbers, headings, captions and key words to find information |              |
| Fix Up Strategies | - Uses a range of automatic, motoring and self-correcting fix-up strategies when reading, e.g. slow down, pausing, repeating words and phrases, rereading and reading on, sub-vocalising, ask an expert |              |
Year 4

Outcomes:
EN2-4A Uses an increasing range of skills and strategies and knowledge to fluently read, view and comprehend a range of texts on increasingly challenging topics in different media and technologies.
EN2-8B Identifies and compares different kinds of texts when reading and viewing and shows an understanding of purpose, audience and subject matter.

Syllabus Content:
- Draw on experiences, knowledge of the topic or context to work out the meaning of unknown words.
- Use metalanguage to describe the effects of ideas, text structures and features of literary texts (ACELT1604).
- Understand how texts are made cohesive through the use of linking devices including pronoun reference and text connectives (ACELA1491).
- skim a text for overall message and scan for particular information.
- Read different types of texts by combining contextual, semantic, grammatical and phonic knowledge using text processing strategies for example monitoring meaning, cross checking and reviewing (ACELY1679, ACELY1692).
- Use comprehension strategies to build literal and inferred meaning to expand content knowledge, integrating and linking ideas and analysing and evaluating texts (ACELY1680, ACELY1692).
- Read different types of texts by combining contextual, semantic, grammatical and phonic knowledge using text processing strategies for example monitoring meaning, cross checking and reviewing (ACELY1679, ACELY1691).
- Read texts, including poems and scripted drama, using appropriate expression, e.g. pitch, pause, emphasis and attending to punctuation.
- Use comprehension strategies to build literal and inferred meaning to expand content knowledge, integrating and linking ideas and analysing and evaluating texts (ACELY1680, ACELY1692).
- Use strategies to confirm predictions about author intent in imaginative, informative and persuasive texts.
- Recognise how aspects of personal perspective influence responses to texts.
- Recognise cohesive links in texts, e.g. pronouns that refer back to particular people or things, and understand how they contribute to meaning.
- Connect information by observing text connectives.
- Summarise a paragraph and indicate the main idea, key points or key arguments in imaginative, informative and persuasive texts.
- Interpret text by discussing the differences between literal and inferred meanings.
- Justify interpretations of a text, including responses to characters, information and ideas.

Literacy Continuum

Comprehension - involves responding to, interpreting, analysing and evaluating texts. ‘Texts’ include oral, aural, written, visual, electronic and multimodal texts.

| Activating Background Knowledge | - Build background knowledge of themes and topics for texts being read
- Uses strategies to confirm predictions and to locate information (e.g. keywords, headings, sub-headings)
- Uses background knowledge to judge suitability of a text for a specific purpose                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |              |
| Creating Sensory Images      | - Analyses a text by discussing visual, aural and written techniques used in a text
- Identify words that trigger a particular sensory image and justify images and accepts that they may be different from others
- Creates sensory images when reading non fiction texts and more difficult fiction
- Creates mental images to capture ideas in texts                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |              |
| Key Vocabulary               | - Can identify the key words in texts and begin to become independent learners of new vocabulary
- Knows that a series of key words trigger a sensory image
- Draws on experience or knowledge of the topic or context to work out the meaning of unknown words
- Identifies evaluative language in literary and factual texts
- Uses knowledge about texts to predict the kinds of words likely to be included
- Identifies words that may help readers to distinguish fact from opinion
- Monitors reading for accuracy and meaning by selecting and using appropriate higher order word identification skills such as knowledge of word origins and analogy                                                                                                                                                        |              |
| Asking Questions             | - Teachers model internal dialogue whilst reading a text e.g. conducting think alouds during shared reading
- Listens to an extended story or simple novel read with interest and asks questions and makes appropriate comments
- Asks questions to find out meanings of unfamiliar words and the actions of characters                                                                                                                                                                                                             |              |
| Making Connections           | - Draws on own knowledge to interpret characters and events in texts related to personal experience (Text to self, Text to world)
- Reacts to texts that express a point of view, using supporting arguments
- Shows empathy with characters in literary texts (Text to self)
- Critically analyses a wide range of imaginative, informative and persuasive texts in different forms to compare how ideas are presented (Text to text)
- Manipulates multiple texts that include a variety of purposes and modes to locate information for specific information (Text to text)
- Analyses and evaluates how written information and visual images shape meaning by comparing texts on the same topic (Text to text)                                                                                                                                                          |              |
| Synthesising                 | - Interprets and analyses several different texts on one topic to present a summary of information and ideas that show an understanding of the topic
- Reinterprets ideas and issues by creating innovative personal responses to ideas and issues in literary texts through oral, dramatic, written and multi-modal presentations
- Makes comprehensive notes of information relevant to the topic, recording resources used                                                                                                                                                                                                 |              |

• Analyses and evaluates a character’s action/motives in a story
• Interprets meaning by answering inferential questions correctly
• Interprets texts by recognising and discussing the different between literal and inferred meaning in relation to information, characteristics and events
• Interprets and critically analyses texts by responding to inferred meaning within a text and justifying interpretations using evidence                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |              |
| Determining Importance | • Identifies and interprets ideas, themes and issues in literary texts
• Builds understandings of a topic by identifying key facts in texts in print and on screen
• Predicts and lists a range of print and non-print resources for answering focus questions, e.g. Internet, literary and factual texts, photographs, charts, people
• Knows when information is irrelevant
• Identifies a research topic and selects relevant and accurate information
• Borrows suitable books from the library                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |              |
| Text Conventions       | • Interprets complex maps, charts, diagrams, graphs, photographs, other still and moving graphics
• Skims a text for overall message using headings, sub-headings, layout, and graphics
• Finds information for specific purposes in factual texts
• Relates information in text to accompanying graphics
• Uses the table of contents, menu, index, spare numbers, headings, captions and key words to find information
• Understands and uses various text layouts to access information
• Confidently adjusts the chosen reading pathway to achieve the attended purpose in literary and factual, print, electronic and multi-modal texts                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |              |
| Fix Up Strategies      | • Uses a range of automatic, motoring and self-correcting fix-up strategies when reading, e.g. slow down, pausing, repeating words and phrases, rereading and reading on, sub-vocalising, ask an expert
• Beginning to understand that sensory imagery and questioning the text are vital to comprehending what we read
• Monitors reading for accuracy and meaning and adjusts reading when difficulties are encountered, e.g. adjusts speed, re-rereads and attends to most important information
• Can select texts at their independent reading level with the teacher’s help                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |              |
